CITY COURT BILL NEARS PASSAGE

Senate Judiciary Committee Favorable

EARLY ACTION SEEN

Witness Forecasts Passage By Upper House

The Port Arthur court bill was today reported favorably by the senate judiciary committee and is now ready for action in the senate. It already has been passed by the house.

The bill provides for the establishment of a court in Port Arthur with jurisdiction equal to that of the county court at law. It provides for the election of a judge under an amended clause which the original bill, which failed for the appointment of a judge.

Already passed House

There seems to be little doubt but what the court bill will go through the senate. It passed the house with a good margin and is now believed to be on the road to final adoption in the senate.

City Attorney Wistner this morning was very much pleased to learn of the progress of the measure, saying that he has been "hoping to hear favorable news for several days." He thinks now that there is no doubt but what it will pass the senate within the next few days.

SAYS 1871 LAWS COVERED MOVIES

Scurlow Seeks Conviction Under "Blue Law"

By United Press.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Feb. 8.—Arguing that the laws of 1871 governing the closing of theaters and like affairs fully covered moving picture theaters, County Attorney Marvin Scurlow consumed the time in the trial of T. B. Noble Jr., manager of the Liberty theater, on a complaint of violating Sunday closing laws, from the commencement of the trial at 10:30 a. m. until court adjourned at 1 o'clock p. m. to reconvene at 2:30 p. m.

The hearing of the complaint of violating the Sunday closing law filed against Noble is in the court of Justice of the Peace H. H. Reeve. The following men were empannelled as the jury in the case this morning: H. B. Brinkman, tailor; Bob Cruse, hardware; J. D. Cook, barber; R. A. Prather, electrical contractor; H. S. Swizer, secretary bakery concern; and L. B. Herring, secretary of the Beaumont Young Men's Business League.

Arguments for the defendant are expected to be taken up by his counsel, Sol D. Gordon, when court reconvenes this afternoon.

Culberson on Trial

WICHITA FALLS, Texas, Feb. 8.—Major W. L. Culberson, former member of Pershing's A. E. F. staff, went on trial here today charged with the murder of M. L. Lamar, photograph salesman, who was shot down and killed in front of his place of employment on the morning of January 8.

WACO, Texas, Feb. 8.—"God bless my witness. I didn't kill them people,"

Breaking his silence for the first time since he went on a hunger strike following his arrest for four murders, Roy Mitchell, alleged "black terror," half whispered that denial to officers in his cell here today.

HIGH RISE IN SABINE FORECAST AT ORANGE

Special to The News.

ORANGE, Feb. 8.—Orange will see an unprecedented rise in the Sabine river tomorrow or Saturday, according to a report from the Houston weather bureau, reporting a rise in the 17-foot level at Ron. W. Vir. 132 miles north of Orange. It is expected that a three-foot rise will be reported here in the next two days. There is no fear of flood damage, however.

CONCRETE POURED HALF WAY ON FT. WORTH

The concrete paving base for paving on Fort Worth avenue was poured today from Procter street half way to Fifth street, and indications that this part of the paving on the avenue will be completed before noon Friday, engineers in charge, said today. Concrete has been poured for the paving base on Fort Worth between Procter street and Fourth street, it is said.

Victim's Widow Bootlegger's Nemesis

NEW ORLEANS, La., Feb. 8.—A campaign which threatens to put every bootlegger in this district out of business has been started by federal agents on revelations made by the widow of a bootlegger victim.

The widow—slender, young and pretty—is Mrs. R. A. Collins of this city. Her husband had taken two drinks of illegal booze—and died in agony. Now, Mrs. Collins has vowed to avenge his death with unrelenting prosecution until the last bootlegger is brought to justice or driven out of town.

At the head of the campaign resulting from the widow's resolve is Colonel George R. Stanton, head of the U. S. department of justice here. Trials are being made almost daily.

SABINE EXPORTS NEAR $4,800,000

Port Arthur Makes 50% of January Total

Exports totaling $4,796,051 in value went out of the Sabine district ports during January, according to a report issued today by the U. S. customs office here. Of this value, Port Arthur's export values, given at $2,420,334, were practically 50 per cent exports from Sabine tonned $692,084; Orange $186,763; and Beaumont $1,776,874, the report stated.

Figures on imports for the district during January are not available at this time, customs officials said, because the reports containing these were sent to district headquarters in New Orleans without a copy being kept in the Port Arthur office. The export figures and reports will be given when returned.

PROPOSE WING FOR HOSPITAL

Board To Consider Matter Of Increased Capacity

As a result of increased demands upon Mary Gates hospital for medical services to merchant marine seamen, a proposition for building an addition to the hospital to serve for the present as a marine ward, providing space for about 17 patients, will be laid before the board of directors of the institution at their meeting next Wednesday.

STEWART SAYS FLOOD BROKE LAND SCHEME

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 8.—The trial of W. E. Stewart, charged with the largest land fraud in the history of the United States will consume at least three weeks, federal authorities estimated today.

"An act of God" caused the temporary failure of the irrigation project, the defense contended. A Texas flood of unprecedented size was the primary cause of the breakdown, the defense claimed.

SAYS DRY ERA CAUSES UNREST

"If Wealth Gets Booze, Why Not Beer for Labor?"

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—Industrial unrest can be traced directly to prohibition. "Mother Jones," 92 organizer for the United Mine Workers of America, declared while visiting local labor leaders.

"Mother" Jones has been ill in Washington for the past three months but declared she was fully recovered.

Why should ambassadors and wealthy be allowed liquor and the laboring classes be denied wine and beer?" Mother Jones asked.

"In the steel mills especially where men are forced to work in excessive heat, they must be satisfied to drink water to keep their bodies dry,"

PREDICTS PAYMENT BY BRITAIN IN 10 YEARS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Fall payment of Great Britain's five billion dollar war debt to the United States in "little more than ten years" was predicted today by Representative Burton, Ohio, a member of the American debt commission, in testimony before the ways and means committee.

Burton backed his prediction on the belief that Great Britain would make an effort to take advantage of the lower rate of interest agreed on for the first ten years.

BORDER BAD MAN JINXED, HE SAYS

Lands at Freeport, Texas, In Shackles

BROKE; DENIES KILLING

Deportee Says Pals "Hung" Murder on Him

ANGLETON, Feb. 8.—Locked in jail on American soil once again, "Little Phil" Alquin today denied he was a "bad man" of the border.

Deported from Mexico because he violated Mexican immigration laws, Alquin, in chains, was landed at Freeport, Texas, this morning from the Freeport Sulphur number six from Tampico.

British and French men of war, well above the limit of tonnage permitted by the ultimatum, steamed into the Gulf of California to demonstrate to the Turks that both countries defied the Angora government to start trouble.

American warships were in nearby waters, one destroyer being in the harbor.

The opinion prevailed in London, Paris and Constantinople that some had blundered in issuing the ultimatum which Turkey obviously is not in a position to enforce, but the British cabinet continued its "war section" and the French rushed additional warships to the near east.

SKETCHES CHECKERED CAREER

"I didn't shoot Fitzgerald—they're just framing me," Alquin said in referring to the murder of Detective Sergeant John J. Fitzgerald at Los Angeles.

Alquin said he never heard of Clara Phillips, the "bambino murderer" while he was in Mexico.

"First I heard of her was yesterday when on the boat someone said she was in Chihuahua," he said. He added he knew of no proposed "international trades" of prisoners, looking toward the capture of Clara Phillips, also wanted in Los Angeles, where she was convicted of beating Mrs. Alberta Meadows to death with a hammer.

At the election of officers Dr. Woods was re-elected president. T. T. Woods, formerly cashier and manager, was made vice president. J. R. Denney, H. E. Brinkman and G. R. Thompson were elected vice presidents.

With the promotion of F. T. Woods, B. D. Logan, who has been assistant cashier, now becomes cashier. W. L. Brinkman is assistant cashier.

FORECASTS VICTORY FOR CALCASIEU PARISH

LAKE CHARLES, La., Feb. 8.—A Calcasieu parish will emerge from the present deep water suit against the Union Sulphur company the victor, according to Griffin T. Holloway, who has just returned from New Orleans, where the suit is being heard.

"For two months after I left Los Angeles I traveled as a clown with a "shuttle-circus" through the north and east. We made Cleveland and Baltimore, where I had a chance that I had

PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE GROWS

Hospitalization Exams 135 in January

Recently increases in the medical services rendered by the U. S. Public Health Service in Port Arthur to merchant marine seamen since the service was taken over in November by Dr. T. J. Liddell, surgeon in the U. S. public health service, are shown in a report issued today, covering the period Dr. Liddell has been in charge of the work here.

During January 31 seamen were given treatment in Mary Gates hospital in November there were eight, and in December, 15, according to the report. Clinic work shown in the report lists the examinations in November at 39, with 47 treatments; in December, 220 clinic examinations were made and 99 treatments given, and January clinic examinations totalled 142, treatments 116.

Examinations for hospitalization made by Dr. Liddell increased from 56 in November to 129 in December, and 135 in January, the report shows. Twenty-five surgical cases, including fractured bones, were handled by Dr. Liddell in January, he said.

In issuing the report, Dr. Liddell again pointed out that the medical services of the U. S. Public Health Department are free to all seamen on vessels of the United States merchant marine, and only a nominal fee, covering actual costs, is made for services on foreign vessels treated in his department.

Woman's Hospital Board to Buy Piano For Nurses' Home

Mrs. H. K. Goodwin was elected chairman of the Woman's Hospital board at the session of the board yesterday morning at the Nurses' home. Other officers who will serve with Mrs. Goodwin are Mrs. J. B. Saint, secretary and Mrs. D. P. Sheeks, treasurer.

An excellent report of the past year's work was given and J. H. Washburne, chairman of the Men's Hospital board, gave a short talk of appreciation of the work done by the women during the past year. The Woman's board voted to purchase a piano for the Nurses' home, and plans for the coming year were discussed at yesterday's session.

"Who's Who" Winners Are Announced Today

(Continued From Page 1) Winners of the News' "Who's Who" contest which appeared last Sunday are announced on page three of today's paper. Three prizes were offered for courage, cleverness and neatness. Many hundreds of answers were received by the judges, beginning early Monday morning. The contest was such that the contestants were required to call each advertiser on the page in order to be sure of the right name and address. And the phones jangled merrily all day long. The Vaughan-Pace Furniture Company reported that they were literally swamped with phone calls. Mrs. Goggan & Bros., Scott-Waller Furniture Company, Holton Theatre and many others made the same statement.

MILK ANALYSES POOR SAYS REED

Criticizes Conditions in Several Instances

Dairy conditions in Port Arthur are declared to be poor, in some instances, by Dr. Pat Reed, city health officer.

Dr. Reed yesterday recommended that the commission send Inspector O. L. Baker out among some of the dairies in an attempt to improve conditions.

The following milk analyses showing the per cent content of bacteria content was made to the commission by Dr. Reed:

I hope they let me stop off at El Paso on the way back to California—I've got a week's leave pay from that cement plant I'd like to collect."

Alquin is "broke." It hasn't been easy sailing for "Little Phil" down the river, his story revealed.

"Not a Dope Addict" "I am not a dope addict and I've never peddled the stuff," Alquin asserted. "They got me all wrong over there. Oaks is trying to railroad me. But I'm going to fight the case."

He said he had been at the house where Fitzgerald was killed in leading a raiding squad but that he had escaped.

"I was the only 'runaway' guy and the rest of the gang double-crossed me and hung the killing on me. There were eight or ten of them in the house—they can tell Oaks who did it."

Worked as a Miner

After staying at Juarez for a few weeks, Alquin went down to Chihuahua City to work in a mine. Then back to Juarez, the movie-ville approach to Los Angeles and El Paso offers to kidnap him, the intervention of Mexican officials and finally his deportation.

The Los Angeles police chief is expected to reach Houston tonight and tomorrow another chapter will be written—he'll be on his way back to the scene of the murder to stand trial for the killing of the Los Angeles detective.

SPEAKING OF NEWSBOYS

Five large railroads east of the Mississippi river have been consolidated into one system and two buck-eyes are at the head of the $208,000,000 rail combination. They are the Van Swear- ingens, O. R., and N. J., of Cleveland.

They were born in a small town, they were newsboys. They were given a common school education. They invaded Cleve- land. They became real estate operators on a small scale. They purchased a large tract of land near Cleveland. They sensed what was coming.

Cleveland jumped into the million population class of cities and never stopped growing. They accumulated wealth. They won the friendship of western financiers. Now they operate as well as control the New York, Chicago, and St. Louis railway; the Toledo, St. Louis, and Western railway; the Lake Erie and Western Railway; the Ft. Wayne, Cincinnati, and Louisville Railway; and the Chicago and State Line Railway.

They are not wall street financiers. They are Westerners. They operate their consolidated system from their offices in the city of Cleveland. They are community operators instead of massed wealth operators. And this is what happened to two lads who were born in a small village in the state of Ohio, who were little news merchants, who never kept their eyes on the clock, and who are in the national picture gallery today as daring individual owners and operators of rail property having a value of $208,000,000.

Opportunity does not appear to be dead in America. Individual operation of railroads instead of Wall Street financier operation of railroads appears to be forging to the front.

All the old kings of the rail were individual builders and then individual operators. Then came Wall Street operations. Now, the railroads may return to the old plan and individuals instead of New York Napoleons of finance may solve the problem of transportation, which is a problem whose solution in the very near future is of vital concern to the American public.

And now the bar of Ft. Worth demands an additional civil district court for Tarrant county and former state senator R. L. Atwood has drafted the bill. And now the bar of Waco has voted unanimously in favor of the establishment of the 10th court of civil appeals and for Waco as the location of that tribunal. Texas is a fast growing state.

JUDGE ATWELL'S WARNING

Federal Judge William H. Atwell of Dallas had before him Dr. J. W. Decker of that city, charged with the selling of narcotics. According to the testimony, two agents of the government sent a girl, said to be a drug addict, to the physician to buy morphine. He gave the girl morphine after a professional diagnosis of her case, but refused to accept payment. She threw two $1 bills on the table and the bills had been marked. This was the comment of judge, "I don't like this case. It looks too little for the government. It does not look right for government officers to send this unfortunate little girl to Dr. Decker's home to buy morphine. If Dr. Decker relieved her suffering, even though she was a drug addict, I'd no more send him to the penitentiary than I'd fly. Let others enforce the law on a broad basis. We'll put the lawbreakers out of business."

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge is growing a magnificent crop of whiskers. This item is intended for the farm page.

LOOKING UP THE BILL

In recent years, because we have been spending more of our money through government and for government, tax bills have caused genuine pressure. This makes people look into the bills, and when they do they find the figures even more startling than they expected.

Whereas we spent $1,773,000,000 for national, state, county and local rule in 1913, we had increased the annual amount between 1913 and 1916 to well over the three billion mark. In 1917 the costs amounted to almost $5,000,000,000, while the war in 1918 shot the total government charge to over $12,000,000,000. In 1919 it went still higher—to $18,000,000,000—while in 1920 and 1921 it was a little over the $9,000,000,000 mark.

These figures, brought down to the individual, mean that while we bought $33 worth of government per capita in 1913, in 1921 we bought $87 worth. The cost of handling our affairs had almost tripled. On the basis of the present cost of commodities, which is about 50 per cent over the 1913 level, we should expect our tax bills to have increased at least that much, plus the added costs of the war.

Putting it another way, we took about 11 per cent of our national income in 1921 to pay government costs. Of every $7 we earned, one went for taxes. For in the last analysis all this money came out of the pockets of the individual, whether first payment was made through a corporation or otherwise.

If some individual had the right to come around and get one-seventh of our monthly pay to spend for our benefit, it is safe to say that we would watch that collector to see what he did with the money. But when government, representing many individuals and a vast organized system, makes the same levy, we forget frequently to watch who took the money and what was done with it.

The people who spend this money are precisely the people we choose at our spring and fall elections. We can change them if we don't like their money spending proclivities, or if we don't get full value for our expenses of about $30,000,000 each working day. Every working hour this great government machine spends $3,000,000 and we pay the bill. If this tax pressure will drive us to take more interest in government, it will have served at least one great purpose—that of arousing a vital civic consciousness.

An exchange speaks of Senator Poffin of Alabama. Now there is murder in the Washington air.

A HOLY LAND VACATION

Colonel Alfred E. Humphreys came to Texas not many years ago light in pocket and hopeful in a spiritual sense. He brought in the Mexia field, is said to have accumulated a fortune of $50,000,000 and on Feb. 7 he sailed from New York for a tour of Holy Land countries. He owns one well that produces $37,000 worth of oil every 24 hours. Really the lord and the driller were kind to the colonel, and he is richly entitled to a holy land vacation.

Now the Japanese are importing gasoline farm engines. And not an inch of soil in Japan will escape cultivation. They are wise and attentive workers in the cherry blossom country.

HARDING IS WILLING

Official Washington says that resident Harding has decided to heed the request of his friends and seek a vindication of the principles of his administration in the coming presidential race. Official Washington is a slow traveler. This intention of the president was known way down here in Texas months and months ago. If he lives, Warren G. Harding, will be the standard-bearer of his party in 1924, and unless the democrats make a mistake, he may be re-elected.

YOU AND I

COMING

Famous editor, Chester S. Lord, claims the radio never will take the place of the newspaper as a distributor of news.

Stagecoach drivers had similar ideas about the first railroad. So did penmanship experts, when they heard of the printing press.

Radio movies, reproducing, and broadcasting events as they occur may make printed newspapers obsolete long before the year 2000.

FITS

Here's the latest gland news, and it's a "cheap sight" more important than experimenting on old men, with monkey glands.

Drapstedt and Lueckhardt, scientists at University of Chicago, discovered that inherited epilepsy is caused by improper functioning of the parathyroid glands in the neck. Also, after two years of research, these two scientists announced a way to control the inherited kind of this dread disease. Next step may be a glandular cure for the other type of epilepsy, caused by shock or blow.

This discovery will save taxpayers millions of dollars now spent yearly in curing for epilepsy and their offspring in public asylums. A big gift to America.

ALCHEMY

Since the Dark Ages, scientists have sought transmutation, how to change one of the basic elements into another. That goal is finally in sight.

In the research laboratory of Sperry Gyroscope Co., chemists believe they have discovered how to change carbon into helium. They are checking up.

Helium, which neither burns nor explodes, is needed for dirigible airships destined to dot the sky by thousands.

With scientists changing carbon into helium, you are not in danger of being laughed at when you suggest that one of these days lead will be easier to turn.

CAGED

You will not believe this, but it's true: St. Louis finds that out of each 100 of its children 40 have never seen a sheep, 17 a pig and 12 a cow. The youngsters are caged up too closely in cities to know much about what's outside the cage.

Maybe the cities had better step putting lions and monkeys in the zoo and stock up with domesticated farm animals.

RUBBER

Will our auto owners, when they buy tires, have to pay part of the debt that Britain owes Uncle Sam? The English say so, at home in Washington think so, in Europe.

The world now uses 331,000 tons of rubber a year, 228,000 tons coming to our country. England controls 257,000 tons of the world's yearly output; and is putting high export taxes on it. This starts the threatened big trade war. What do the same, in John Bull's shoes?

OUCH!

Rodger Dolan, investigating origin of speech, says "ouch" is the most interesting word in our language and all others. A child instinctively yells "Ouch!" when it feels pain, whether it knows how to talk or not. The word comes naturally, is highly expressive of a mood and its sensations.

Our other fundamental words probably originated the same way. Moaning wind slowly says, "Wind." "Dog" is a lot like a canine's bark. When in the field, baying before wind quite plainly says "Who-ee-ah" if you listen. Is everything alive and does it talk? Maupassant thought. They looked him up.

Sour Lake's Alumni Meets Stars Tonight

Texas Company Club Ready For Invasion Of
Fast Quintet Scheduled For Franklin
Gym at 8 o'clock; New Men On Local Club

INTERSPACING their long rest and practice for the Good Gulfers next Tuesday night, the Texas Company "Texaco Stars" clash with the Sour Lake Alumni here tonight in Franklin gym. The game is called for 8 o'clock and is the first the Texaco Stars have entered in several days.

Captain Perkins reports that his men are in the pink of trim, and that they are ready for the advent of the contest tonight against the Sour Lake club.

Settle Old Issue
The same teams were matched for a game February 3 which was to have been played in Sour Lake. However, on Jupiter Phoenix broke up the plans, and sent a shower of rain fall that continued so long the boys called the game off.

The Texaco Stars had no planned to meet an opponent at any time this week, it having been the idea of their mentor, Coach Abley, to show them through hard training until next Tuesday evening for the Gulfers. However, a phone call late yesterday afternoon from the Sour Lake contingent settled the affair, and the game was matched for this evening.

Both Teams Fast

In view of the strength of the two teams, it is believed a large crew of boosters will be in evidence for the affair.

The local team has been practicing every day this week, and got on a long training period last week. Two new men have been working out with the club for about 10 days. Captain Perkins insists, and we look good. They will be given a chance to display their wares when the club locks horns tonight, and may possibly get a taste of the soap with the Good Gulf club Tuesday.

New Men Out
"Bilie" Palmer, former manager of the Port Arthur high school, and who has been working out regularly with the Stars, is back in town tonight while O'Neil, an all-around athlete who recently came to the Texas club, is also listed on the crew for the evening's entertainment.

Palmer is well known here, and is considered by many one of the clearest athletes in the running, and is said to be among the best basket ringers in the city. He is placed down for a post at forward this evening, a place he has occupied in many successful games, and will probably show the visiting contingent something worth while.

Sour Lake Strong
The Sour Lake Alumni is composed of the crew that made Sour Lake high school a name on the basketball, fast, snappy and with an air of style playing basketball, and visitors from their camp show that isn't half the story. They play basketball fast, snappy and with an air of style that usually bewilders their opponents.

Their game tonight against the Stars will be a clash of wits for the basket, and will be one of the best entertainments the Stars have listed for Port Arthur.

The Lineup
The probable lineup for the Texas Stars was given out this morning as follows:

Palmer, Best, forwards; Thompson, center; Bogart, Ehrhart, guards.

HAVE 12 ENTRIES

THE PAS, Man., Feb. 8.—The sixth annual dog derby which will be the leading feature of a week's carnival of winter sports at The Pas, will be run February 22. The race will be over a 200-mile course and will be worth $2,700 to the winner.

Twelve entries for far have been announced. They are dog teams owned by C. B. Morgan, Dupas Bancroft, W. W. Wurster, A. Russick, A. McPhee, L. L. McKee, Solomon Cook, Alfred Ballantine, W. Constant, Carl Sherman, Baptiste Campbell and Prantone of Grand Rapids. These men are the best known dog racers in Canada.

ANDY THOMAS DEAD

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Andy Thomas, boxer, considered a contender for the world's title, died in St. John's Hospital, Brooklyn, after collapsing in the last round of a boxing contest with John Clinton, New York lightweight. Thomas fell to the floor when he came out of his corner for the last round without being struck by his opponent. He was picked up unconscious and turned to the hospital after receiving the last rites of the Roman Catholic church. It was found that he was suffering from concussion of the brain.

BREAKS ARM

GEORGETOWN, Texas, Feb. 8.—During the basketball game being played by George High and Georgetown in the Southwestern gymnasium Bill Langford sustained a badly broken arm and the game was called off. Langford was one of George High's star players.

HARRY MAY SIGN

DENVER, Feb. 8.—Coach Harry Hughes of the Colorado Aggies returned home after a conference with Wisconsin officials, relative to his possible signing as Badger head football coach.

The list is narrowing down from a long list of applicants, until three men remain as the likely candidates. They are: Oftzie, a former Wisconsin man, at present coach at Mississippi A. and M. college; Jack Ryan, present mentor at Marquette University, Milwaukee, and Harry Hughes, tutor of the Colorado Aggies for the past eleven years.

LOCAL QUINTET MAY UPSET THE DOPE TOMORROW

Port Arthur Hi in Fine Form
For Kennedy Five

Last night Coach L. O. Smith's high school quintet went through an hour or more of the most rigid practice.

They are prepared for the invasion of Coach Kennedy's protégés from Beaumont.

Tonight they will receive final minute instructions from their mentor and will probably warm up a bit on bunting, goal, dribbling, and passing.

The team has been moulded into one of the speediest contingents in the Six City League, of which Beaumont, Nederland, Port Arthur, Silsbee, Sour Lake and others are members. Their victory over Nederland at Beaumont Tuesday night left them in better trim to meet Beaumont while the latter's victory over Silsbee made that contingent a more formidable competitor against the local here tomorrow night.

Silsbee conquered the locals in one memorable clash, and Beaumont claims a win over Silsbee—but just as the Port Arthur boys pulled off the sheep's skin here not long ago and upset the dope against Sour Lake. In the same result is not at all improbable when Beaumont walks out on the floor here tomorrow evening.

Silsbee, some of the best clubs in the Six City League, and had defeated Silsbee among the lot. That made the Sour Lake boys a strong contender for honors over Port Arthur in view of the latter's loss to Silsbee. But Port Arthur went out on the field to win, and Sour Lake came off conqueror—beaten by a large margin.

Since that event Coach Smith has had his men out working hard. They are showing up in better form than they have exhibited here in some time, and it is already expressed that their issue with Coach Kennedy's quintet will be a warm number.

The game is set for 8 o'clock, at Franklin gym.

RAY MAY NEVER

Believe Race Idol Has Given
Up Ring Idea

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—John Ray's latest decision to forgo the riches to be gathered in the ringed arena of the poverty and glory of the circus depicts does not come in the nature of a surprise to those who know John Ray.

When the fleet-footed Chicago amateur ed he was going to take up professional boxing as a livelihood, he didn't know in what a blaze of glory his casket trip this winter would start.

Now finding himself still able to go on winning indefinitely, run as well as not better, than ever before, Ray certainly has taken a step to his credit and to the advantage of the sporting world at large by deciding to remain a casket amateur.

It would be quite a blow to sport lovers in general if Joe should decide to quit running at this time. In view of all physical laws he has continued year after year to show his heels to the best that the country has been able to produce and the queer part is that the older he gets the faster he gets.

ACCEPT CHALLENGE

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 8.—Harvard and Yale have accepted the invitation of Oxford and Cambridge to an international intercollegiate track meet to be held in England in July.

TECHNICAL "KO"

BRUSH, Colo., Feb. 8.—Don Trevor Long, Colorado's promising featherweight, won a technical knock out from Bobby Hughes of Port Worth in the seventh round of their scheduled ten round bout here. Hughes fought Long to a standstill during the first three rounds by carrying the fight to his opponent.

BAN ON HIGHBROWS

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Those high知识分子 individuals who suffer annual attention because the contracts tendered to them is not comparable with the overhead cost of steam yachts will neither be sold nor traded elsewhere in the major leagues this spring. That is the essence of an agreement reached by club owners of the big time circuits. In other words it is a case of the austere order of Infatuated Magnates versus the Baseball Players Union.

EXHIBITION MATCH

TYLER, Texas, Feb. 8.—Don Trevor Long, Colorado's promising featherweight, won a technical knock out from Bobby Hughes of Port Worth in the seventh round of their scheduled ten round bout here. Hughes fought Long to a standstill during the first three rounds by carrying the fight to his opponent.

WIN TITLE

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Karl H. Bahr and Dan Mathes of New York won the doubles championship of the indoor tennis tournament of the Heights Casino, defeating R. Norris Williams of Philadelphia and Watson V. Wabash of New York, 6-2, 16-6.

SIGNS TO COACH

DICKERS FOR FARM

CAPE MAY, N. J., Feb. 8.—Jess Willard is figuring on buying Cape May Farmstead, one of the showplaces of the country, it was reported today. The farm consists of 200 acres of meadow land and Willard plans to raise cattle there, it is said.

AFTER UMPIRES

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—The managers of the major clubs and the minors, too, for that matter are trying to sign players to win championships, or at least to give the turnstiles an excuse for being oiled. The presidents of the leagues today are trying to sign umpires who will last through the season without having their lives threatened more than 50 times.

WORLD FAMOUS RUNNERS MEET THIS SUMMER

Paddock Willing to Enter
Any Special Match

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Two or three of the world's greatest sprinters will compete in a series of match races this summer which will be the feature of the outdoor track season, according to plans now being considered here.

Charlie Paddock, sensational California sprinter, who claims a flock of records, is coming east to represent the University of Southern California at the Penn relays and the inter-collegiate championships.

In both he will meet among others Alfred Lee Coney and Alton Woodring, two of the fastest men in the east.

Paddock is reported to have said that he would be willing to engage in any special match races that might be arranged for him.

That several of these matches will be arranged seems sure. New York is interested and Philadelphia and Boston, where great interest is attached to track and field sports, also want to see the famous California boy in action because it is felt that he would put at his very best when he shows here.

"Nothing definite has been done yet but if Paddock is willing to enter in match races, they no doubt will be arranged," it was said at the A. A. U. headquarters.

On Winning Runs

There were just five players in the American league who got above the century mark in driving in runs during the 1922 campaign. And strangely enough four of them envied in St. Louis Browns' uniforms.

The quintet was composed of Williams, Sisler and Jacobson of the Paul crew, and Robbie of the Detroit Tigers. Williams was the leader with 155, while Ladino had 128 to his credit; McManus 109, Sisler 105, and Jacobson 102.

Cobb of Detroit and Tylie Walker of the Athletics just missed the select circle with 99. Ruth of the Yankees is responsible for 96 markers while Hermann, Detroit, and Joe Wood, Cleveland, were well up with 92.

Pratt is Boston's best sending in 86 sams and Judge led Washington with 82. Shantz and Hooper of the White Sox had the heavy work for Gleason's tribe, having 80 each.

HIGH PRAISE FOR HORNSBY

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—Baseball fans and writers overlook the fielding ability of Rogers Hornsby, you will take the word of Major Branch Rickey of the Cardinals.

"Because Hornsby is such a wonderful hitter, the fans fail to appreciate his remarkable fielding ability," says Rickey.

"Of course, I know many of the experts won't agree with me, but I consider Hornsby one of the greatest fielding second basemen of all time."

Charlie Paddock, sensational California sprinter, who claims a flock of records, is coming east to represent the University of Southern California at the Penn relays and the inter-collegiate championships.

In both he will meet among others Alfred Lee Coney and Alton Woodring, two of the fastest men in the east.

Paddock is reported to have said that he would be willing to engage in any special match races that might be arranged for him.

That several of these matches will be arranged seems sure. New York is interested and Philadelphia and Boston, where great interest is attached to track and field sports, also want to see the famous California boy in action because it is felt that he would put at his very best when he shows here.

"Nothing definite has been done yet but if Paddock is willing to enter in match races, they no doubt will be arranged," it was said at the A. A. U. headquarters.

MARKETS

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Wednesday's corrective reaction in the late dealing had a healthy influence on the stock market and the forward movement was resumed with renewed vigor. After a period of hesitation in today's early trading, after five days of inoperable trading, the market passed by exceptional heavy volume, the pace was getting very swift. Indeed, the technical setback of the previous session proved to be what the market needed to protect its international structure.

Stocks attached more significance to Secretary Mellon's prediction of a prosperity spell than to happenings in the occupied areas, where the continued rumblings around the Philippines, Stock, which led the rise and which gathered considerable momentum, are probably the issues enjoying remarkable currency as a result of the business revival. American can reached a new high and substantial gains were scored by Cuban American sugar, Cuban Cane, transferred California Packing, Woolworth, Sears, Roebuck and North American.

Gold, taking in Corn Products, Standard and Johnson, on the advice of the last few days, dimmed enthusiasm somewhat during the late afternoon trading.

DAVENPORT CHARGES TRICKERY IN BILL

AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 8.—Arising to a question of personal privilege, Representative Davenport of San Antonio this afternoon accused a member of the senate of using "trick and underhanded" methods in an attempt to defeat legislation proposing a white man's primary and providing for a strict party pledge, in accordance with the platform of the democratic party of Texas. Representative Davenport introduced a bill on this subject in the house several days ago. Senator Parr introduced the same bill in the senate yesterday.
